WORK LIKE HORSES.

Harness Placed About the Shoulders of the Little Ones, Majority of Them Girls, and Father
Guided Handles.

Milwaukee, May 25.—Complaint has been made, says a special dispatch from Oshkosh, Wis., against a farmer living near Neenah that he has been hitching four of his seven children to a corn plow or cultivator and compelling them to drag the implement through a ten-acre truck garden while he guided the plow and drove as he would drive horses.

This complaint is founded on facts, as farmers and persons from Oshkosh, riding along the highway, have witnessed the practices. When the attention of the authorities was called to the matter, Dr. Wilkie, agent of the Fox River Valley Humane society, went to the farmer and compelled him to send five of the children to school. Of the seven children, five were of school age, whom the farmer, it is alleged was rearing in ignorance. None of them are able to read or write. The majority are girls. The eldest one is not over fourteen years of age.

Dr. Wilkie states that the plow had harness to it, which was put about the shoulders of the children. The farmers say the plow or cultivator is very light, and was used merely to stir up the top soil.

MADE UP TREE.

Boston Man Who Can Do Greater Things Than Nature.

Boston, May 25.—Evidence to show that Ferdinand E. Borges had hoped of financing large stock companies was introduced when his trial for larceny was resumed Thursday. Borges, it is claimed, had proposed to organize a tropical rubber and fruit company with a capital of $100,000,000, and with headquarters in twelve cities, with financial backing furnished by twelve banks.

The scheme was to go into effect when all of the stock of the Ubero plantation had been floated. Borges expressed the plan by letter to his nephew, John C. Borges, to whom he stated that he had devised two or three new schemes which would be profitable.

"Of course," Borges wrote, "the schemes are not such as it would be desirable for you to invest in. This is a wonderfully fertile field here, as is shown by the fact that the last year our agents made from $3,500 to $7,100 each in commissions. I think you can sell some stock for us in New York and Brooklyn. We are allied with such influential men as Arthur W. Stedman, for instance, so that we can float any sort of development company. It is easy to get shining lights, and we can get banks, for a consideration, to loan their name for the $100,000,000 company."

A letter alleged to have been written by Borges to Mr. Engle by his father-in-law in New Mexico said: "I have found a very clever man here in Boston, and he says he can make us up a tree that will look like a coffee tree growing. I wish you would send me a bunch of coffee leaves and some berries and about five pounds of pineapple leaves. This expert can make up any kind of a tree, and with your help he can make a coffee tree."

SENSATIONAL TESTIMONY.

McKittrick Handled Bundle of Cash
by an Unknown Man.

Kansas City, May 25.—Sensational testimony has been brought out in the trial of George H. Crosby, traffic manager of the Burlington railway, George L. Thomas of New York, a freight broker, and L. B. Taggart his clerk, on charge of conspiracy. T. H. McKittrick, president of the Hargadine-McKittrick Dry Goods company of St. Louis, who had testified that he employed Thomas at a salary of $500 a year to look after the interests of his firm in the matter of railway rates and routing from the east, said he had received various sums of money from unknown sources. In one instance Mr. McKittrick testified a person whom he did not know entered his (McKittrick's) office in New York City one day and handed him a bundle of money containing between $400 and $500. Mr. McKittrick declared he did not know the man.

Improvement Continues.

INJUNCTION REFUSED.

United States Judge Will Not Do
as Liquor Men Ask.

PENALTY TOO GREAT

American Express Company Sustained
In Its Determination Not to Violate Recently Enacted
Mississippi Measure.

Kansas City, May 25.—Judge Smith McPherson, in the United States district court here Friday, refused to grant an injunction sought by the Harvest King Distilling company of Kansas City, which asked that the American Express company be restrained from refusing to transport packages destined to Mississippi. The express company, which had been transmitting these packages up to May 10, refused to further accept them because of the passage by the recent Mississippi legislature of a local option law imposing a heavy fine for such acts. It was stated that there were now 3,500 packages of liquor in Mississippi, and if the express company was to deliver these they would be liable to fines aggregating $25,000,000.

Judge McPherson, in denying the injunction, said that if he were to grant it, it would result in 250 express agents being thrown into jail.

TRAVELED INCOGNITO.

Spanish Ruler Enters France in an Ordinary Passenger Train.

Bordeaux, May 25.—The meeting between King Alfonso and Princess Ena of Battenburg occurred with absolute privacy at Angouleme. The king traveled incognito in an ordinary train from Irun to Angouleme, no one knowing his presence in France, and the greatest surprise was caused on the arrival of the princess' train, when he was seen sitting in the salon smoking amidst floral decorations and Spanish and British colors. The princess was not visible. Spanish and British consuls greeted King Alfonso.

MEET AND GREET.

King Alfonso and Princess Ena Given Great Public Reception.

Irun, Spain, May 25.—King Alfonso met Princess Ena here Friday morning at 4:45 o'clock. They were given a tremendous public reception. The train left for Madrid at 5:15 o'clock.

BASSETT BASTED.

Circular Designates Professor as the Runt of the Faculty.

Knoxville, Tenn., May 25.—In consequence of what is said to have been a very rigid examination upon knowledge of the Bible freshmen of Maryville are charged with having circulated a sensationally displayed handbill about the college campus and town of Maryville attacking Professor Bassett, who put the examination questions. The circular reads: "Harry J. Bassett, the runt of the faculty. Too narrow-minded for such a broad place. A nuisance. Warning. Notice—The student body wishes he would leave; so get out. He thought he did something by giving us such Bible examples."

Much feeling has been manifest over the incident, and the faculty is making every effort to locate the guilty parties. Professor Bassett holds the chair of Latin at the college, which is one of the leading Presbyterian institutions of Tennessee. He also teaches a class of the Bible, as do all members of the faculty.

AMERICAN ATHLETES BACK.

Hundreds of Friends Welcome Home the Champions of the World.

New York, May 25.—The White Star liner Republic, having on board the victorious American athletes who competed in the olympic games at Athens, Greece, arrived at quarantine Friday morning. Hundreds of friends were on hand to give the world's champions a rousing reception. It was expected the Republic would reach her dock about 8 o'clock, but she was detained at quarantine because of smallpox in the steerage.

DEMURRER SUSTAINED.

George H. C. Crosby Was Ordered Discharged From Custody.

Kansas City, May 25.—In the United States district court Judge McPherson sustained the demurrer to the indictment against George H. Crosby, former freight traffic manager of the Burlington road, charged with alleged conspiracy to grant rebates on freight shipments from the east to Missouri points. Judge McPherson sustained the claim that the government, in the present trial, had failed to present sufficient evidence to show conspiracy, and discharged the defendant.

CONTROL OF ENERGY.

Is It Possible For the Human Race to Avert Extinction?

The only conceivable way in which the human intelligence can ever succeed in averting the "procession of the great year" is not by postponing the issue, but by reversing the process. The question is this: While energy is being dissipated in accordance with the natural law, can we so manipulate things as to accumulate energy, making the unavailable available—notwithstanding the fact that cosmic processes seem to be essentially irreversible? Now there is assuredly no inherent reason why we should not accomplish this. It is true that hitherto all the atomic evolution that has been observed is atomic disintegration. We may speak now, indeed, of the analysis of the elements. But if it was, we may remember, that the older chemistry began, and yet analytic chemistry was the precursor of synthetic chemistry. We began by breaking up compounds, but now we can make them—can, indeed, make compounds hitherto unknown in nature. Similarly, it is more than probable that we shall ere long learn to achieve the synthesis of the elements as well as their analysis. No energy is ever lost. Even when the radium atom, itself the child of the uranium atom, breaks down and dissipates its energy, ending, it is supposed, as the dull atom of lead, the original energies are not destroyed. Why should they not be gathered up again and thus again become available? Are matter and energy to go on their way, ultimately destroying the human race? For myself, I incline to the view that victory will rest at last with "man's unconquerable mind."—C. W. Saleeby, F. R. S., in Harper's Magazine.

LIZARDS OF BARBADOS.

They Can Change Color and Drop Their Tails at Will.

The green lizards which swarm on every tree certainly have the hardest life of any creatures in Barbados, since their flesh is so delicate that everything eats them which can catch them. Cats, fowls, birds, monkeys and snakes all devour the poor lizards, which have only two methods of defending themselves, both very inadequate for the purpose. One is their power of changing their color, whereby they can appear bright green at one moment on the leaf of an aloe and then dark chocolate brown on a piece of damp earth. If this does not conceal them from their enemy they drop their tails. The caudal appendage jumps from the ground and makes a frantic dance all by itself, and if the pursuer is deluded into seizing it the lizard avails itself of the chance to escape and grow another tail.

For the rest the poor lizards are harmless things, with pathetic eyes, in which lurks an expression of weariness and disillusion, as though they were as old as the world itself and had found it all vanity and vexation of spirit. They are fond of plaintive music and will enter at the open windows when a piano is playing and sit listening and nodding their queer flat heads and looking out of those wistful eyes at the player till he or she, if of an imaginative temperament, might fancy she were playing to an audience of transmigrated souls.—Chambers' Journal.

Cigar Smoke and Love.

In Siam the lighting of a cigar indicates a betrothal. In that country a person wishing to become betrothed to the girl of his choice offers her a flower or takes a light from a cigar or a cigarette if she happens to have one in her mouth, and thereupon, provided there is no impediment in the birth months and years of the respective parties, steps are at once taken to arrange for the payment of the dowry. The families of the bride and bridegroom have each to provide at least $1,000. In Calabria, as in certain parts of India, a lighted taper or a lighted pipe betokens the acceptance of the suitor for the hand of a lady in marriage. In Siberia it is the custom that when a suitor has been accepted by a girl she presents him with a box of cigars and a pair of slippers as a sign that he is to be master in the house.

An Oddity In Toes and Digits.

There is one curious fact respecting the animal creation with which you will never become acquainted if you depend on your text books for information. It is this: No living representative of the animal kingdom has more than five toes, digits or claws to each foot, hand or limb. The horse is the type of one toed creation; the camel of the two toed; the rhinoceros of the three toed and the hippopotamus of four toed animal life. The elephant and hundreds of other animals belonging to different orders belong to the great five toed tribe.

Fame.

Stranger (in Vienna)—Then this is the hotel which Beethoven used to frequent! I say, waiter, can you not show me the table at which Beethoven used to sit? Waiter—Beethoven? Stranger—Why, he very often came here! Waiter (betrinking himself)—Ah, yes! The gentleman is out of town.

Useless Labor.

Teacher—Johnny, I don't believe you have studied your geography. Johnny—No, mum. I heard pa say the map of the world was changin' every day, an' I thought I'd wait a few years till things get settled.—Milwaukee Wisconsin.

Natural Privileges.

"It is a physical impossibility to keep a watering place exclusive."
"Why so?"
"Because there anybody who pleases can be in the swim."—Baltimore American.

DON'T DOSE THE STOMACH

Cure Catarrh by Breathing Hyomei—Sold Under Guarantee by E. J. Jenkins.

There is one treatment for nasal catarrh which is based upon common sense and at the same time is thoroughly scientific.

Hyomei is not a cure-all; it is a specific for the cure of catarrhal troubles. Breathed through the neat pocket inhaler that comes with every outfit, the aromatic healing of Hyomei penetrates to the most remote parts of the nose, throat and lungs, healing all inflammation and killing the catarrhal germ wherever present.

So successful has Hyomei been in the cure of catarrh, E. J. Jenkins sells it under a guarantee that it will cost nothing unless it gives satisfaction. The complete Hyomei outfit sells for $1 and consists of an inhaler that can be carried in the vest pocket, a medicine dropper and a bottle of Hyomei. The inhaler lasts a lifetime, and if more Hyomei is needed, extra bottles can be obtained for 50c.

It is the most economical of all remedies advertised for the cure of catarrh, and is the only one that treats this disease without stomach dosing, applying the medication and healing where the disease germs are present.

Do not dose the stomach to cure nasal catarrh; breathe Hyomei, knowing that if this remedy does not cure, it will cost you nothing.

Origin of Ox Tail Soup.

During the reign of terror in Paris in 1793 many of the nobility were reduced to starvation and beggary. The abattoirs sent their hides fresh to the tanneries without removing the tails, and in cleaning them the tails were thrown away. One of the noble beggars asked for a tail, and it was willingly given to him. He took it to his lodging and made (what is now famous) the first dish of ox tail soup. He told others of his good luck, and they annoyed the tanners so much that a price was put upon them.

Ambition.

Ambition becomes displeasing when it is once satiated. There is a reaction, and as our spirit till our last sigh is always aiming toward some object it falls back on itself, having nothing else on which to rest and having reached the summit it longs to descend.—Cornelle.

Easy Work.

First Transient—If you had got to go into business, what line would you choose? Second Ditto—I'd open an employment agency. It would be so nice to be getting other people to work without having any temptation to do any yourself.

Extreme views are never just. Something always turns up which disturbs the calculations founded on their data.—Tancred.

WOULD REDUCE ALL.

Judge Houston of the Aransas Pass Railway of This Opinion.

Austin, May 25.—The railroad commission resumed its hearing Friday on passenger rate reduction. Arguments of attorneys consumed the day. Commissioner Mayfield submitted some figures as to the earnings of the Central, Santa Fe and Katy, showing that outside connections earn more with less expense than Texas lines.

Judge Houston of the Aransas Pass was heard first. He said the proposed reduction on the Central would affect every line in Texas; that the proposition would reduce every rate unless it be excursion rates. He said there was no demand for a reduction. Furthermore, time after time the legislature had refused to interfere in this connection.

Commissioner Colquitt wanted to know if arguments used before the legislature were not in effect that the commission had power in the premises. Chairman Storey declared that such argument had never been made.

Judge Freeman of the Texas and Pacific entered a protest against reduction; that a reduction on the Central would disturb all railroads in Texas. "If rates are reduced on the Central every merchant along the line has an advantage over merchants on other lines." He contended there was provision in law giving the commission the authority to classify passengers; that the proposition was a discrimination against one community's advantage over others.

LIGHTFOOT RETURNS.

Some Interesting Developments Are Soon Expected as Result of Trip.

Austin, May 25.—Office Assistant Attorney General Lightfoot has returned from Chicago, Jefferson City, Mo., and other points where he had been assisting Attorney General Davidson in the prosecution of an investigation against the alleged connection of the Waters-Pierce Oil company with the Standard Oil company. "I secured some valuable information and evidence," said Mr. Lightfoot, "which will prove of great value to the state investigation at hand. I got information which could not have been procured except by personal investigation. I cannot go into details of the evidence obtained, as it would be prejudicial to the state's interests in the matter."

It is understood that it will not be long now before some interesting developments are made in this investigation.

Greenville, S. C., May 25.—The general assembly of the Southern Presbyterian church Friday disposed of committee reports on closer relations, decided upon Birmingham, Ala., for the meeting place of the assembly next year and made final declaration on the Caldwell heresy case.

The special committee named to formulate judgment of general assembly as a court in the Caldwell case reported that in sustaining the complaint of the session of the First Presbyterian church of Fort Worth against the synod of Texas the action of the synod was reversed, and that by this reversal of judgment Rev. William E. Caldwell has been since the day of his reception into the presbytery of Fort Worth, and is now, a member of that presbytery, and that since Nov. 30, 1904, the date of his installation as pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Fort Worth, he has been, and is now, pastor of that church.
